(I)  C   D   G   Emi   x2

             C        D
(1)I used to rule the world
             G                    Emi
   Seas would rise when I gave the word
                        C      D
   Now in the morning I sleep alone
             G                 Emi
   Sweep the streets I used to own

(I)  C   D   G   Emi   x2

             C        D
(2)I used to roll the dice
           G                   Emi
   Feel the fear in my enemy's eyes
                 C           D
   Listen as the crowd would sing:
          G                 Emi
  "Now the old king is dead! Long live the king!"

                C        D
(3)One minute I held the key
           G                     Emi
   Next the walls were closed on me
                           C        D
   And I discovered that my castles stand
        G                    Emi
   Upon pillars of salt and pillars of sand

     C              D
(R)I hear Jerusalem bells are ringing
   G             Emi
   Roman Cavalry choirs are singing
   C                D
   Be my mirror, my sword, and shield
      G                 Emi
   My missionaries in a foreign field
   C                 D
   For some reason I can't explain
   G                     Emi             C      D
   Once you go there was never, never an honest word
           Hm                Emi
   That was when I ruled the world

(I)  C   D   G   Emi   x2

                         C    D
(4)It was the wicked and wild wind
   G                     Emi
   Blew down the doors to let me in.
                           C        D
   Shattered windows and the sound of drums
   G                         Emi
   People couldn't believe what I'd become
```

```
            C      D
(5)Revolutionaries wait
          G                Emi
   For my head on a silver plate
                       C      D
   Just a puppet on a lonely string
      G                          Emi
   Oh who would ever want to be king?

     C              D
(R)I hear Jerusalem bells are ringing...

(I2) C   Emi  x3
     D  x2
