```
       E
(1) Suzanne takes you down
    To her place near the river
            F#mi
    You can hear the boats go by
    You can spend the night beside her

(2) And you know that she's half crazy
    But that's why you wanna be there
            G#mi
    And she feeds you tea and oranges
              A
    That come all the way from China

(3) And just when you mean to tell her
             F#mi
    That you have no love to give her
    Then she gets you on her wavelength
            F#mi                                    E
    And she lets the river answer that you've always been her lover

            G#mi
(R1)And you want to travel with her
    And you want to travel blind
    And you know that she will trust you
               F#mi                                  E
    For you've touched her perfect body with your mind

(4) And Jesus was a sailor
    When He walked upon the water
    And He spent a long time watching
    From his lonely wooden tower

(5) And when He knew for certain
    Only drowning men could see Him
    He said, ``All men will be sailors
    Then until the sea shall free them''

(6) But He Himself was broken
    Long before the sky would open
    Forsaken, almost human
    He sank beneath your wisdom like a stone

(R2)And you want to travel with him
    And you want to travel blind
    And you think maybe you'll trust him
    For he's touched your perfect body with his mind

(7) Now Suzanne takes your hand
    And she leads you to the river
    She is wearing rags and feathers
    From Salvation Army counters

(8) And the sun pours down like honey
    On our lady of the harbor
    And she shows you where to look
    Among the garbage and the flowers
```

(9) There are heroes in the seaweed
There are children in the morning
They are leaning out for love
And they will lean that way forever while Suzanne holds the mirror

(R3) And you want to travel with her
And you want to travel blind
And you know that you can trust her
For she's touched your perfect body with her mind
